Iowa Homeland Security & Emergency Management

Volume 12, Issue 2

February 2016

Severe weather is just around the corner Are you ready?

The Iowa Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management (HSEMD) and the National Weather Service (NWS) will again join together to promote Severe Weather Awareness Week, March 21-25.

The goal of Severe Weather Awareness Week is to provide Iowans a better understanding, and to increase awareness, of the state's spring weather hazards. The highlight of the week will be the annual tornado drill, scheduled for Wednesday, March 23. Schools, businesses, state and local governments, the military, and individuals are encouraged to participate in the drill. Additional information on the tornado drill can be found on local National Weather Service websites.

Visit www.beready.iowa.gov for information on Severe Weather Awareness Week and preparing for this spring's severe weather. Ω

HSEMD exercise staff shares expertise in Kosovo

HSEMD's Steve Warren had the opportunity recently to travel to Kosovo with members of the Iowa National Guard as part of the State Partnership Program from February 7-13. Warren, an operations officer and exercise training specialist with the department's Operations Division, Response Bureau, joined the group to assist the Kosovo Security Force, Kosovo Police and the Ministry of Interior (emergency management) with the development of a five-year training and exercise plan as Kosovo continues to build its emergency management program.

During the week-long stay the Iowa representatives shared lessons learned from the recent Iowa National Guard 2016 Vigilant Guard exercise and explained the process to develop and conduct that exercise. Warren also shared HSEMD's five-year training and exercise plan and explained the process of the workshops that are conducted each year on how to build and sustain a training and exercise plan.

Closing out the week, members of the Iowa National Guard and HSEMD briefed senior members of the Kosovo Security Force, Kosovo Police and Emergency Management Office on the emergency support functions that were selected by the different Kosovo agencies. They also discussed what exercises and trainings will be accomplished over the next five years with a full-scale exercise planned for 2020 involving many government agencies.Ω

HSEMD chief of ops recognized for exceptional service

HSEMD Chief of Operations Joyce Flinn was recently recognized for her efforts and extraordinary support for the Iowa National Guard.

On Dec. 10, 2015, Maj. Gen. Timothy Orr presented Flinn with an award for exceptional service for her dedication to duty, expertise in emergency operations, keen advice and tireless support to the State of Iowa.

"I was surprised and pleased to receive this award," said Flinn. "Supporting our state and local partners is just one area of my job I take very seriously. I'm honored to be recognized by Gen. Orr and our National Guard partners for those collaborative efforts."

Congratulations to Joyce! Ω

HSEMD crowns chili cook-off champ

HSEMD cooks recently put their culinary skills to the test at a chili and soup cookoff.

Several staff members cooked up their finest chili and soup recipes for judging by their coworkers at a Feb. 12 lunchtime potluck. Although the results were very close, Linda Roose, Hazard Mitigation Bureau safe rooms lead, took first place with her chili.

Congratulations to Linda and thanks to all who contributed to a good time. Ω
